From the colonial streets of Quito to the lush tropical rain forests of the Amazon basin and the enchanting Galápagos Islands, we'll experience Ecuador's many splendors in the comfort of our OAT small group. The strains of Spanish guitars and Andean flutes float by as we walk the stone streets of the mountain city of Quito. The rich biodiversity of the Amazon Basin beckons as we glide by canoe to explore the habitats of tropical wildlife and indigenous communities.

Then we explore the Galápagos Islands in depth on our seven-night cruise, stepping ashore to discover the unique wildlife of islands isolated by 600 miles of ocean. Marvel at the gracefulness of a sea lion darting through azure waters or the sight of a marine iguana splashing by our feet. From pristine shores and exotic jungles to colonial cities with modern sentiments, Ecuador offers an astonishingly diverse tapestry of nature and culture that awaits our discovery.
